

TRANSFER PRICING ASSOCIATES LAUNCHES RECRUITMENT SITE

Amsterdam – August 2008 – Transfer Pricing Associates is proud to announce the launch of the TPA Global Recruitment site.

Transfer pricing is one the most important and controversial business issues facing multinational companies operating within a global environment. As a global provider of independent and specialised transfer pricing, tax valuation and customs services, TPA Global has a successful track record of meeting the increasing demand in the market place for highly specialised and experienced professionals who are able to bring with them practical and hands-on experience to businesses they advise. Owing to the firm's rapid expansion, TPA Global has launched a recruitment site which aims to recruit experienced and highly committed individuals to fill its vacancies globally.

TPA Global offers successful candidates high exposure to the market and provides varied opportunities for its professionals to grow within a truly international environment. TPA Global should be the next logical step for candidates with at least five years relevant experience in their area of specialisation.

TPA Global Recruitment site allows potential candidates to easily browse through all job offers according to the job categories available in the respective regions. In addition, the online application form allows potential candidates to file their applications in a time-efficient and effective manner.

TPA Global offers opportunities for its professionals to fast-track their career development through the firm's detailed training programmes such as Econ-Pro and Legal-Pro and its ambitious goals present opportunities for successful candidates to play a key role in growing the business and its network.

In addition, TPA Resource specialises in finding and placing senior transfer pricing professionals within multinational companies across all industry sectors. We have a unique, global portfolio of transfer pricing professionals and because of TPA Global's extensive experience and practical knowledge in a broad range of transfer pricing issues, we are well equipped to assess the skills and experience levels of potential transfer pricing candidates for your business.
