TPA GLOBAL STARTS NEW CUSTOMS PRACTICE AND APPOINTS NEW PARTNER

Amsterdam, December 2008 – TPA Global, the leading provider of transfer pricing services, is pleased to announce the opening of a new Customs Practice, TPA Customs.

Enrico De Angelis joined TPA Customs on November 1, 2008. He is an experienced adviser in virtually all areas of European Community customs law, including customs valuation, rules of origin and classification, in a wide range of industries. He also advises clients on duty relief, free trade agreements, excise duties and trade remedies investigation, and recently acted as economic consultant to a leading association of importers in an EU anti-dumping case.

Prior to joining TPA Customs, Enrico worked for several years in the EU trade and customs practice of one of the Big Four accounting firms in Italy and held lectures and workshops on EU trade matters and WTO-related customs issues.

Enrico is based in Zürich and focuses on multinational enterprises with operations in Central and Southern Europe.

TPA Global is enjoying a period of steady expansion and the establishment of the new TPA Customs practice is indicative of its continued growth.
