

Okkie Kellerman

Professional Background

- Tax Executive at Edward Nathan Sonnenbergs (Corporate and International Tax).
- Qualified Chartered Accountant.
- Member of the South African Institute of Chartered Accountant (SAICA).
- Honors in Accounting. University of Pretoria.
- Advance Certificate in Taxation, University of South Africa.

Proven Track Record

- Gained significant commercial experience while working as a group tax advisor for a large South African manufacturer.
- Worked for a leading international firm of auditors, where multinational companies were advised on cross-border tax implication.
- Have a specialised industry knowledge servicing clients in the construction, mining, energy, manufacture, distribution and services industries.

Capabilities

Advising multinational and South African clients on:

- Setting up operations in SA;
- Structuring of investments into SA considering the various tax and exchange control implications;
- Structuring outwards investments by SA corporations considering the various tax and exchange control implications;
- Structuring transaction in the most tax efficient way;
- The need to draft transfer pricing policies;
- Obtaining tax rulings;
- Ongoing tax advice;
- Obtaining exchange control approval;
- Ongoing exchange control advice;
- The tax implication of merger and acquisition transactions; and
- Structuring Black Economic Empowerment transactions.